

Dear Sirs,

Registered Dealers in Controlled Oil Scheme (RDCO)

New Legislation controlling the supply of rebated oil, Gas Oil and Kerosene, came into force on 1st April 2003.

Under the scheme, and as a supplier of rebated oils to you, we will be required to have assurance from you that you are authorised by HMRC as a registered dealer in these oils or that you are the end user of the product and not selling the rebated fuel on in any form. This also applies to intercompany sales within your own group of companies.

Our company is approved and registered under the scheme.

Approval number: 31562003

Therefore could you please provide us with the following information by return to ensure that there will be no issues with supply of rebated fuel.

Company Name: (Trading Title)
Company Address:
RDCO Approval Number: (If this does not apply, please write 'end user')
VAT Registered Number
Contact Name & Telephone Number:
Signature & Date:

Should you be the end user of the product please state the fact beside the request for RDCO Approval number.

For further information on the RDCO scheme go to the HMRC web site (www.hmrc.gov.uk) or telephone their advice service on 0845 010 9000.

Yours Faithfully
